

● BEAUTY TIPS TOP TEN BEST MAKE-UP BUYS

Gorgeous!

guaranteed

With so many beauty products these days, how will you know what will make you look your best? Sun Media presents the Top Ten Beauty Picks specially selected for you by professional make-up artist to the stars, Maureen Greenstein. Famous faces like America's Next Top Model winner Cari-Dee English trust Greenstein to create a flawless look that lasts, so she needs products that impress her A-list clients.

"For CariDee, I did a gel liner from Bobbi Brown, which is spectacular. They define the eye, stand the heat, humidity and, if you're swimming, don't come off. Cari-Dee also wanted bronzer and needed a nude lip for a day look. For a quick change for night I used a stronger coral.

"Each season has its own trend and mood with products that claim to make your life better, while they take ten years off your face." Greenstein warns. Like many of us, she has had her share of disappointments. "There was no miraculous beauty discovery for me to find.

"And, really, the final look should just be the best version of yourself," Greenstein says.

False lashes are big this season, but only individual lashes. "Pinks are gigantic this year, too. Everybody's into faux tans to protect skin and pinks complement that St. Tropez fantasy," Greenstein reveals. "Glosses with gold shimmer are hot with a smoky-lined eye, or a light wash of turquoise shadow."

No biased beauty editor, Greenstein compiled her favourites based on years of print, TV, film and runway experience.

"I have tested and applied the top ten products to many of my client's faces and can personally attest to their fabulousness," Greenstein says. "People love their look so that's why these make the cut. Products have to last as long as the performers filming or brides dancing at their wedding. Nothing moves, flakes, or smudges and the face looks fresh at 2 a.m."

While she lives and breathes cosmetics, Greenstein stops short of creating her own line. For now, Greenstein offers The Essential 3: A professional brush set for sensuous make-up application available at theperfectbrush.com. CariDee told Greenstein she loved her look and "love your brushes!"

With our picks and pro tools, you'll have everything you need to make yourself beautiful for summer and have confidence to face the world.
